COLONEL JAN L. ROSKO

Colonel Jan L. Rosko is Director, Plans and Programs, Aeronautical Systems Center, Air Force Materiel Command, Wright-Patterson Air Force Base, Ohio. She is responsible for developing strategic plans to implement the ASC vision and transformation goals, as well as planning and executing the ASC Divestiture Program. She and her staff prepare programming guidance and policy, and lead development of the Center's $4B Program Objective Memorandum submission while representing ASC to the AFMC corporate process.

Colonel Rosko was commissioned a second lieutenant at the U.S. Air Force Academy in 1982. She has served as a KC-135 navigator, instructor navigator, and evaluator navigator, as well as a T-43 instructor navigator at the US Air Force Academy. As (acting) Operations Officer at RAF Mildenhall, she led the wing tanker effort for Operation Allied Force, during which her staff planned and executed 1,150 combat support missions. As commander of the 424th Air Base Squadron, a geographically separated unit in the United Kingdom, she led 451 American and British military members and civilians operating and maintaining two bases in Britain, plus munitions at four sites in Norway. She also oversaw the $120M airfield reconstruction at RAF Fairford, the largest NATO project since the end of the Cold War. Prior to assuming her current position, Colonel Rosko was the Deputy Chief, Future Concepts and Transformation Division, Directorate of Strategic Planning, Deputy Chief of Staff for Plans and Programs, Headquarters US Air Force, Pentagon, Washington, D.C.
